Group I: Focus on Spain and Latin America

5:00-5:10 Kimberly N. Martinez (European Studies) The Hidden Jewel of Moorish Architecture in Spain
5:10-5:20 Libba Moore (PCHR) Female-Headed Households in the Dominican Republic
5:20-5:30 Azzan Braxton (Latin American Studies) China, the Competitor: How Brazilian Trade With China is Harming Brazil’s Manufacturing Industry
5:30-5:40 Michelle Hartmann (PCHR) Photographing the Subaltern, and the Need for Humanitarian Photography
5:40-5:50 Kelsey Wayne (PCHR) Patriarchal Tradition, Gender Roles, and Legislative Action: A Multifaceted Approach in Observing the Sociocultural Normalization of Domestic Violence in Nicaragua
5:50-6:00 Stephanie Martin (Global Travel and Tourism) Unconscious Imperialism: Recognizing and Resisting the Power of Tourists in Areas of Place-Based Tourism.
6:00-6:10 Heather Wilemon (Latin American Studies) The Effects of the U.S. Good Neighbor Policy on the outcome of the Trujillo Regime in the Dominican Republic
6:10-6:20 Samantha Poler (Latin American Studies) The Violation of International Migrant Rights: Mexican and Central American Migrant Workers in the Southeastern United States Meat Packing Industry

Group II: Focus on German Studies

6:20-6:30 Cooper Dell (German Studies): Intergovernmental Organizations: Governance or Dominance?
6:30-6:40 Christy McAlister (German Studies): Politik Deutschlands
6:40-6:50 Rebecca Dellinger (German Studies) Redefining the Headscarf: How the Attempted Control of the Female Muslim Body has Shaped Attitudes Towards Multiculturalism in Modern Day Germany.
6:50-7:00 Kai Bode (German Studies) Internationalizing Appalachian State through CLAC

Group III: Focus on Asia

7:00-7:10 Rina Gray (East Asian Studies) : Hallyu through the Lens of K-pop: An Examination of the Multi-Faceted Korean Pop Industry in Advertisements
7:10-7:20 Hannah Biggam (East Asian Studies)
7:20-7:30 Matthew Uschelbec (East Asian Studies) : The Japanese Yakuza: Criminals or Businessmen?
7:30-7:40 Megan Wallace (PCHR) Island of the Dogs: Taiwan's Endeavors to Prevent Strays

Group IV: Focus on Development and Human Rights

7:40-7:50 Rachel Duffus (PCHR): Recognizing the Simultaneous Occurrence of Women’s Rights and Elder Abuse in Ghana’s Witch Camps to Gain International Aid for Improved Elder Care
7:50-8:00 Megan Price (PCHR) Sex Trafficking in Thailand: How to Recognize Victimhood Without Taking Away Subjectivity
8:00-8:10 Stephanie Moss (PCHR) : Examining the Work of OCHA in the DRC, Is the Cluster Approach Successful?
8:10-8:20 Mary Pannier (PCHR) : If the Shoe Fits: The Story of Blake Mycoskie
8:20-8:30 Katie Costantin (Globalization and Development)
8:30-8:40 Juliane Portillo (PCHR)
8:40-8:50 Chelsea Vaughn (PCHR) Geomythology and Volcanology: The geologic interpretation of Hawaiian, Maori, and Greek depictions of volcanoes in mythology